

115 Organizations Urge Rejection of UC Ethnic Studies Council Proposal Following Condoning of Terrorism

SENT VIA EMAIL

October 25, 2023

Dear University of California Board of Regents, President Drake, and UC Chancellors,

We are 115 education, civil rights and religious organizations. Many of our groups alerted you last month to serious concerns about a UC ethnic studies admissions requirement proposal being vigorously promoted by the UC Ethnic Studies Faculty Council, which, if approved, would lead to virtually every high school in the state being forced to offer ethnic studies courses based on criteria developed by the Faculty Council's "experts." We pointed out how deeply alarming this prospect is, given the Faculty Council's role in helping to organize, sponsor and support an institute and conference expressly dedicated to delegitimizing Zionism and working towards the elimination of the Jewish state, as well as the Faculty Council's contention that anti-Zionism should be one of the "animating commitments" of high school ethnic studies courses.

We are writing to you now to underscore the urgency of our concerns in light of Hamas' recent terrorist attack on Israeli civilians and the appalling letter that was sent to you last week by the UC Ethnic Studies Faculty Council. In their letter, the Faculty Council vilifies you for condemning Hamas' slaughter of Israeli civilians and demands that UC's administrative leadership "retract its charges of terrorism."

Let us be clear: it is possible to condemn the massacre of Jews by Hamas and express empathy for Palestinians in Gaza, as over 300 UC Berkeley faculty members recently demonstrated. However, in the wake of the largest mass murder, mutilation, rape, and kidnapping of Jews since the Holocaust - atrocities characterized by President Biden and Governor Newsom as "terrorism," "pure evil," and "crimes against humanity" - the UC Ethnic Studies Faculty Council refuses to even acknowledge, let alone condemn, the genocidal actions of Hamas. Instead, in a grotesque display of moral inversion, the Faculty Council insists that the heinous crimes of Hamas, whose founding charter explicitly calls for the obliteration of Israel and the ethnic cleansing and murder of Jews, must not be called terrorism. At the same time, the Faculty Council outrageously and falsely accuses Israel of "genocide," "ethnic cleansing," and "terrorism."

The Faculty Council also condemns UC leaders for their public opposition to the antisemitic Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) movement and argues that BDS "should be celebrated," not opposed. It's crucial to understand that the BDS founders have openly articulated their Hamas-aligned goal of destroying the Jewish state, and, according to the New York Times, "terrorist organizations, including Hamas," are part of the BDS National Committee, which coordinates the movement globally, including on U.S. campuses. In addition, in response to the Hamas massacre of over 1,400 Israelis on October 7th, the BDS movement posted a statement urging "meaningful support to the Palestinian Armed Resistance" and referring to the terrorists responsible as "heroic." The Faculty Council's celebration of BDS is hardly surprising. Many of the 300 ethnic studies faculty represented by the Faculty Council, including the group's co-chairs, support and have committed to bringing onto their campuses an academic boycott of Israel -- the academic arm of BDS -- whose mission is to provide intellectual justification for the Jewish state's elimination.

The Faculty Council's letter provides a dramatic demonstration of our urgent concerns. The fact that the Faculty Council defends the inhuman atrocities of a terrorist organization committed to the annihilation of the Jewish state, and has publicly aligned UC ethnic studies departments and faculty with Hamas' genocidal goals, is not simply morally depraved. It presents a clear and present danger for Jewish students in UC classrooms and beyond. One only need note the inflamed university and high school campus climate to realize how a toxic curriculum that vilifies the Jewish state and its supporters and condones their murder will further incite antisemitism. For example, last Thursday students at Balboa High School in San Francisco walked out of their classes and stormed through the hallway chanting, "From the River to the Sea, Palestine will be free," a slogan which the ADL recognizes as a call for dismantling the Jewish state.

UC faculty who cannot acknowledge that the Hamas massacre is terrorism and a crime against humanity, and who state that anti-Zionism and the elimination of the Jewish state is a core value of their discipline, must not be trusted to establish state-wide ethnic studies standards for California students.

The UC Ethnic Studies Faculty Council's disastrous admissions requirement proposal must be immediately rejected.

Sincerely,

A Time to Stand
